

TUCSON WEEKLY

SEPTEMBER 27-OCTOBER 3, 2007 WWW.TUCSONWEEKLY.COM • FREE

Best Ueggie Burger

Lovin' Spoonfuls
Vegetarian Restaurant

2990 N. Campbell Ave., No. 120
325-7766, www.lovinspoonfuls.com

Running from mindless zombies who want to eat your tasty flesh? Take refuge at Lovin' Spoonfuls. The undead will shy away from the animal-free entrées here. But that doesn't mean you have to. The vegetarian restaurant serves three delicious types of homemade veggie burgers: the adzuki burger—a patty of adzuki beans, zucchini, mushrooms, carrots, corn, oats and walnuts; the classic burger—a grilled soy patty topped with grilled onions, lettuce, tomato and pickles; and the Route 66 bacon cheeseburger—a grilled soy patty topped with soy bacon and melted vegan cheddar. The Route 66 is one of the best veggie burgers we've eaten. And since the friendly staff members tell us it's the most popular of the three, we're in good company—excluding zombies, of course.

Runners up:

- 2. Bentley's House of Coffee and Tea
1730 E. Speedway Blvd.
795-0338, www.bentleyscoffeehouse.com
- 3. The B Line
621 N. Fourth Ave.
882-7575, blinerestaurant.com

NIGHT OF THE LIVING BEST OF TUCSON™

Best Vegetarian/Vegan

Lovin' Spoonfuls
Vegetarian Restaurant

2990 N. Campbell Ave., No. 120
325-7766, www.lovinspoonfuls.com

If you're like most people, you probably have a list of things you want to do before you die (at the hands of the undead, perhaps). We here at the Weekly wish you luck with those. Concerning the list of things you should do, near the top is checking out Lovin' Spoonfuls, the hottest veggie joint in town. Regardless, if you are a vegan, vegetarian or neither, the bottom line is that Lovin' Spoonfuls serves great food. Since the plates contain no artery-clogging animal flesh, by eating there, you might just live a little longer, too. It's extra free time you can use to check a few more items off your to-do list ... before you pass, as we all must, into the gentle night.

Runners up:

- 2. Govinda's Natural Foods Buffet
711 E. Blacklidge Drive
792-0630, www.govindasoftucson.com
- 3. Casbah Tea House
628 N. Fourth Ave.
740-0393, www.casbah-teahouse.com

Erika Fisher and Jillian Courtneet enjoy their dessert together at Lovin' Spoonfuls.

